JULY 2023

PRESIDENTS MESSAGE

It's hard to believe we are already halfway through 2023. Where does the time go?

At yesterday's committee meeting, we made some hard decisions about the distribution of our Monthly Newsletter which I am sure everyone agrees is a credit to our esteemed editor, David Mosley.

The Newsletter will continue to be emailed in the middle of each month to all members with email addresses. Deadline for contributions is the second Tuesday of each month. And, due to popular demand, the Recipe of the Month will be reinstated. So please contribute your favourite very easy recipe preferably with only a few ingredients.

More and more members are asking for printed copies of the Newsletter. Printing the Newsletter in colour is extremely expensive so your committee has decided to offer two alternatives, both of which will be in black and white minus the photographs.

You can collect a copy from Chris Hartley at each general meeting free of charge but you must order one from Chris beforehand so that we are not wasting copies.

Chris's phone number is 5442 7397.

If you wish to receive a black and white copy by post as soon as they are available, then you must give Chris a stamped self-addressed envelope.

The committee feel sure you will all agree this is a fair and equitable arrangement.

The new format for the Activities Planner seems to be working well. It is early days yet and I am still working on refinements. As always, I am very willing to listen to suggestions.

The Foodies have probably noticed that there are a couple of Sundays this month with no lunches planned. I just felt with our fine dining lunch at Gusto's on July 16th and Christmas in July on Thursday 20th, both our pockets and our stomachs needed some time out.

The August Activities were approved by the Committee yesterday. They include a variety of inexpensive Sunday lunches as well as lunch at the historic Apollonian Hotel at Boreen Point on Thursday, August 17th. I am assured the original owners are back in charge so it should be a fun day. Car pooling will be available for people who do not want to drive that far.

Jill and Mary have arranged some very interesting guest speakers for the next few meetings. JUDITH BRADLEY from RED CROSS has asked to speak at our August meeting instead of July, so to replace her in July Megan Connell will talk about OYSTER RESTORATION in the Noosa river.

Carol is doing a great job with our morning teas. Problems do occur from time to time. The RSL staff forget to supply butter for the muffins or milk or teaspoons. Sometimes, they forget to turn the urns on. Please let Carol handle these problems. She is our Catering Manager. It is her job to fix all problems associated with Morning Tea. If Carol is away, Dorothy takes over this role.

Aloysius Archer has always been a sucker for fast dames and fast cars. They've both landed him in jail before, but he can't resist their siren calls. In bestselling author David Baldacci's new Archer sequel, A Gambling Man, Archer has just been released from jail on the East Coast and has hopped on a Greyhound Bus heading westward to become a private investigator in Bay Town, California. All he's got is the clothes on his back and an Army

Honorable Discharge for his service in World War II.

A quick stop over in Reno lands him with a new dame, an aspiring actress Liberty Callahan with her sights set on Hollywood, and a sweet ride in a snazzy blood-red French 1939 Delahaye convertible. Archer has won the car in a poker game, but the problem is its prior owner owes a sizable debt to the bookies. When they attempt to seize the car from Archer in payment, Archer has other options on his mind.

He and Liberty escape their clutches and arrive unscathed in Baytown.

The peace and quiet is short-lived. Upon meeting his new boss, an old time PI named Willie Dash, Archer lands in the thick of a political scandal—a blackmail scheme involving an affair by a mayoral candidate, Douglas Kemper. Kemper is seeking to fill the vacancy left open
