TEWANTIN NOOSA PROBUS CLUB

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE FOR JUNE 2025

Hi Everyone ,

The blue- sky days of winter have arrived! Reset the air-conditioner, bring in the firewood and find the winter woollies. Get ready for fun and frolic. The agenda is full.

Autumnal May started with a well-attended coffee morning at Quamby Café. Imagine the Yacht Club by the lively river on a super sunny, Sunday, seated in the west deck area with its wonderful up-close views and quieter ambience, add happy company, delicious food and good service. Perfection. The other highlight was the Anniversary lunch at the Doonan. It was another fine day for us to celebrate our 23rd Birthday. Seated altogether at a long table we enjoyed interesting food and wine and good conversation as we soaked up the garden atmosphere. It was good to welcome our newly inducted couple Len and Denise at their first Probus outing.

At the Probus Meeting of the 27 May we enjoyed meeting Fizzy, the author of the Karla the Koala books. Beautifully Illustrated by Auckland artist, Lily and suitable not only for children, the three books were quick sellers. $5 from each sale is donated to buying trees for Koala habitat. It only takes $15 to buy one tree. Thankyou Fizzy for coming to introduce Karla.

We were delighted to Induct both Val and Insa into our club. Already each has become a popular and happy addition to our flock. Welcome ladies.

Our hard-working VP Joan and her assistant Madam Secretary Barbara have created a wonderful agenda for the Bargara Getaway 16-21 November. The coach tour company, Mystic Mountain Tours has been accepted as our Tour bus. Not only highly recommended and the best quote, but the bus is also well set up for our more elderly needs. The driver is the Owner, Andrew Fallon. Well done and big thanks.

It was good to see the "Cooroy Rag" including our photos and mention in the latest edition. The Movies look more interesting this month. Meet Tuesday 10th at 10 am. See: Brenda and June.

On Friday 6th, Joan and Joy attended a red-carpet event, "Sunny Coast Showdown" at the the Noosa Arts Theatre, as guests of multi-sponsoring Bendigo Bank. Showdown is a talented locally based film company. The theme was celebrating Community, visually, by word and film.

The June activities began with a quiet lunch at the Noosa/ Tewantin Golf Club. The Coffee morning was well attended at Sanctuary at Acres. The Walkie-Talkie girls took a fun detour and made it a special event. On Sunday, 8th lunch was moved to Zachary's. More countryside drives to have lunch, will be Al Fresco near Eumundi, on 12th and Dingo Creek Winery on Friday 20th. Remember Chinadina on Sunday 15th. Check your memos.

The Next meeting, Tuesday 24, Guest Speaker is Oz Bayldon re Fund raising by Music Festivals. To those who are unwell we send our healing thoughts and look forward to your return.

To our own very special, warm and welcoming Probus Community, Happy Days, Joy.

We had a great time mixing with your great members. Thrilled that we pleased them enough to sell sufficient Karla books to plant another raft of Koala 🐨 trees in the Yurol forest
